

Assignment for February 23, 2011

Answer with your parents - parental signature _____

Use your catechism (Questions 1-12, pgs.26-36) to answer these questions: (don't forget the back side of this page!)

EVALUATION Write your evaluations and your reasons for agreeing or disagreeing. Often you will find reasons to both agree and disagree with the same statement. The material in these questions generally follow the same order as it is presented in the catechism. When you can, include in your answers the numbers of the catechism questions that help you answer the question.

1. How would you respond? A friend says, "I don't need to study the Bible. I can learn all I have to know about God just by walking in the park."

2. What is wrong with the statement: If everyone would just follow his conscience, he would get to heaven.

3. Agree or disagree: The God of the Old Testament is different from the God of the New Testament.

4. Agree or disagree: Moses wrote most of the Old Testament.

5. Agree or disagree: New translations of the Bible are changing the Bible.

6. Agree or disagree: The chief character of the Old Testament is Jesus.

TRUE OR FALSE Place a T in front of the true statements and an F in front of the false statements.

1. Holy Communion is another name for the Scriptures.
2. Everything the Scriptures say is true.
3. Only the New Testament is inspired.
4. Only the religious things in the Bible are true.
5. Although the Bible was written by men, God is speaking in it.
6. We cannot expect all the historical facts in the Bible to be true.
7. What the Bible says of scientific matters is accurate.
8. God put only his general thoughts into the Bible, not his exact words.
9. The gospel message is true, but we need no longer keep God's laws.
10. God claims every word of the Scripture to be his own.
