

THE BEST ANSWER

1. If someone comes to your house bringing a religious message which does not confess Jesus to be the Savior and equal to God,
 - a. you should welcome him in and try to change his mind.
 - b. you should politely listen and then tell him "No thanks."
 - c. you should ask him to leave immediately without thanking him.
2. In the Bible God makes it very clear that
 - a. there will always be divisions and conflicts in visible churches.
 - b. there will be one visible Christian church throughout the New Testament.
 - c. those who stand up for truth are stubborn.
3. Although there may be believers in false churches,
 - a. it is all right for us to belong to such churches.
 - b. we should avoid worshiping in them and hearing their preachers.
 - c. we may belong if we speak out against what is wrong in them.
4. When St. Paul says by inspiration we should "mark and avoid,"
 - a. he means we should not talk to or have any business with unbelievers.
 - b. we should refuse to pray, worship, and commune with false churches.
 - c. we should tell people in false churches they will not go to heaven.
5. Worshiping in a church we know teaches false doctrine
 - a. is something we can imagine God will overlook on the last day.
 - b. is not as serious as disobedience, robbery, or covetousness.
 - c. is a sin against the Second Commandment.
6. A friend invites you to join them at their church's Vacation Bible School. Do you...
 - a. go with them and participate in the songs and prayers and lessons
 - b. say, "No thanks, I have my own church."
 - c. go with them and not participate in the songs and prayers and lessons
7. You attend the funeral of a classmate who died in a car accident. The funeral is at a church that you know teaches false doctrine. Do you...
 - a. attend the funeral and pray along with everyone else and sing the songs
 - b. attend the funeral but politely say your own prayer in your head and not sing the songs
 - c. not attend the funeral.

Assignment for October 6, 2010

Review: Questions 242-250 (pgs.201-209)

Memorize: Hebrews 10:25 & 3rd Article of the Creed and its Explanation

Project: Contact another church in your area either by phone or stopping in and ask for a pamphlet explaining its beliefs. Then write a report describing places where that church teaches something different from our own. Work with your parents on this project.