

Lesson 43 - October 13, 2010 Death and the Last Day (Q258-264; pgs.214-219)

1. Your friend's Christian mother passes away after a short illness. What do you say to your friend that day or the day of the funeral? What do you say to your friend a month later?
2. Your classmate's older brother dies in a car accident while driving drunk. You know this person had nothing to do with Jesus Christ. What do you say to your classmate that day? What do you say to your classmate a month later?
3. A person's faith in Christ Jesus is the most important possession. Why is this true?
4. A or D: Those who go to hell can at least take some comfort in being with many of their friends.

WHAT'S WRONG HERE? (Tell what is wrong with each statement. Then correct the statement in your own words.)

1. I know my soul will be in heaven, but how can God put together a body that has decayed?
2. Uncle Harry had it in his will that his body should be cremated after his death, and the ashes were to be spread over the ocean so that he won't have to spend eternity with only one leg like he did here.
3. Hell is just an imaginary place that God talks about to scare people, so they will repent and believe.
4. God created us. He gave us life. So he better keep us from going to hell.
5. I wonder if God's confirmation tests will be as bad as pastor's when we get to heaven?
6. I hope the end of the world doesn't come on January 14th. That's my birthday.

Assignment for October 20, 2010

Review: Questions 258-264 (pgs.214-219)

Memorize: Choose Philippians 3:20 or Philippians 3:21

Memorize: The 3rd Article of the Creed and its Explanation

Project (choose one)

#1

Read Revelation chapters 21-22 and then draw (or paint, sketch) a picture of what you think heaven will look like. Add some color, not just pen and pencil.

Plan your own funeral service. Make a list of things you would like in your own funeral service: hymns, Bible verses (at least 3), and a list of things you would like the pastor to use in a prayer.
