

Lessons 1-2 – Knowledge We Have about God – The Bible is God’s Word (Q1-12; pgs. 26-36)

8/24/11

Class discussion:

1. What is the difference between an agnostic and an atheist?
2. What is wrong with this statement: If everyone would just follow his/her conscience, they would get to heaven.
3. Agree or Disagree: New translations of the Bible are changing the Bible.
4. Agree or Disagree: The only translation of the Bible that we can use is the King James Version.
5. What are some ways the devil gets people to change the Bible? Why does the devil do this?
6. Agree or Disagree: We cannot expect all the historical facts in the Bible to be true.
7. Agree or Disagree: What the Bible says of scientific matters is accurate.

After class assignment:

TRUE OR FALSE Place a T in front of the true statements and an F in front of the false statements.

1. Natural knowledge of God is learned from creation and conscience.
2. The laws of nature prove that God is very wise.
3. We cannot know any of God's law without reading the Bible.
4. Although he does not admit it, the atheist's conscience speaks of God.
5. The beauty of creation tells us how God saved man from his sins.
6. Unbelievers have consciences.
7. Man's conscience tells him that there is a God.
8. God's creation tells all men that he exists.
9. Agnostics claim they cannot know who the true God is or what he wants.
10. Our consciences warn us that God hates and punishes sins.
