

Lessons 8-9 (Q41-52; pgs. 59-66)

9/28/11

Class discussion:

1. Agree or disagree: A good friend will correct you every time you say “Damn” or “Oh my God!”
2. Evaluate: Jack’s friend was always cursing. Jack asked him to stop, but he wouldn’t. Finally, Jack decided they couldn’t be friends anymore.
3. Evaluate: A famous preacher on television talks about Jesus and then promises that all who pray to Jesus with him will be healed of their illnesses.
4. Evaluate: The Jones family was riding their car when someone nearly ran into them. When Mrs. Jones saw the other car coming at them, she cried, “O my God!” After the danger was past, her son scolded his mother for using God’s name in vain.
5. The Second Commandment deals with the sins of the tongue. A great Christian man once said, “What a man should not say, he should not hear.” What do you think he meant by this?
6. Agree or disagree: Reading your horoscope in the paper or playing with games like the Ouija board aren’t wrong, just as long as you don’t believe in such things.
7. What things do you thank God for on a daily basis?
8. What are ways you can praise God with your tongue?
