

I Need More...FAITHFUL FRIENDS

A friend is someone who knows all about me and likes me anyway. Have you heard that description of a friend? How would you define what a friend is? Are you happy with the friends you have? Do you wish you had more friends, or different kinds of friends, or that your friendships were healthier or more helpful?

People might define friends in various ways, but one thing is certain. God designed people with a need for friendship. When he created the first man, he offered this observation: “It is not good for the man to be alone” (Genesis 2:18). We naturally feel the need that God observed, but faithful friends might be hard to come by.

In the internet world friends often call each other BFF's—Best Friends Forever. But those same friends often turn on each other and end up more as enemies than as friends. No matter how well someone knows you and likes you, there really is no friend who knows all about you. Your innermost secrets remain locked within you, and there are deeper feelings than anyone could ever understand.

God wants you to know what you might have suspected all along. He does know all about you. He observes that you need someone to whom you can pour out your heart, and he is willing to be that one.

But do you want God to be a BFF, when deep down you know what he knows about you? As his own Word says, “If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves” (1 John 1:8). Few of us would make such a claim, but the good news is that God still wants to claim us as friends, despite our shortcomings.

That is why Jesus Christ, God’s Son, came into the world long ago. He came to do what only the best of friends would do—he came to lay down his life for you. He came to stand in for you and take whatever punishment God’s justice demanded for your sins. And God accepted his own Son’s sacrifice to wipe out the guilt of your sin.

That is why God invites you to see him as your best friend. He knows all about you, and he knows everything that you need. He extends his love to you without conditions, for the sake of his Son’s death on the cross.

You will not find a more faithful friend than God. Look to the living God and learn more about his faithfulness and his love. The more you learn, the more you will find that he is a true Friend that you can always trust.

LENTEN DINNERS

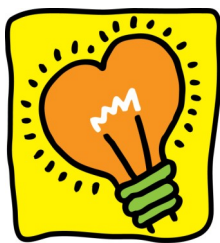

Please sign up to host a dinner. See sign up sheet next to mailboxes.

We will have a different way to set up for the Lenten dinners this year. Volunteers or groups of volunteers will put on a dinner. A free will offering basket will be available at each meal. At the end of the Lenten services the money donated will be shared with the families/groups that provided the meals. Lenten Dinners will begin on Wednesday, February 13th—the last dinner will be on March 20th. Each dinner will run from 5:30-6:30pm., followed by Lenten Service at 6:30 pm.

For more information, please speak to Cameron Ford, fellowship chairman.

Faith Lutheran's New Members

Please welcome The Kassebaum Family ~ Paul, Megan, Henry, Timothy

How did you meet?

We met at the University of Florida. We had a Psychology class together our sophomore year.

When were you married?

We married August 9, 2003 in Dade City, FL.

What is your occupation?

Paul works in the Pharmacy at Fort Knox. Megan is a stay-at-home mom, and does a little freelance editorial work when the opportunity arises.

Are you military and if so what branch, etc.?

Paul joined the Army in 2003, after graduating from Pharmacy School. He left for his Officer Basic Course just weeks after our wedding.

What are your hobbies? What does your family enjoy doing together?

We LOVE to travel as a family, and love any outdoor adventures: like biking, running, canoeing, hiking, or just playing. We had a fantastic Kentucky to California trip last summer, with lots of camping and exploring along the way. Megan loves taking pictures to document it all. We also enjoy gardening. The first thing Paul did to settle into our new home on Ft. Knox is build several raised beds and plant some vegetables!

Do you have a favorite sports team?

The Florida Gators!!!

What do you like best about Faith Lutheran Church?

As a military family, it is a comfort to know that we can go to a WELS church and hear the same Biblical message, whether we are in Washington, Georgia, Tennessee, Florida, or Kentucky. And, it is a joy to have a friendly church "family" when our families are far away.

Youth group

Faith Lutheran Church Youth Group is named

Paladins for Christ.

Faith Lutheran Prayer Circle

From time to time a brother or sister at Faith has a need or concern. They call Pastor Horn or Earl Enevold and ask that the saints bring their request to our Father in heaven. Anita Enevold then contacts members who have signed up for the prayer circle. Those saints then pray for that member's request. If you wish to be included in the prayer circle, please contact Pastor Horn or Anita Enevold.
